V.Dear Ms. Brown,

I have just learned from our school newspaper that Protect Our Earth is looking for new members. I can hardly wait to become a member. The following are my advantages.

To start with, I have no trouble communicating with others in English. I am outgoing, friendly and patient, which makes it easy for me to get along well with others. What's more, I once took part in a project aimed at protecting trees when I was in China, so I have some experience. I would be very grateful if you could consider my application.

I am looking forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely,

Li Hua

Dear Peter,

I'm really happy to hear that you are going to have a study travel in China, which has been your dream for years. Congratulations to you! It is also mentioned in your letter that you want to visit a typical Chinese museum. I strongly recommend Shanghai Museum.

Shanghai Museum which is available for everyone for free lies in the center of the city. What you need to do is to get a ticket with your ID card or passport. Shanghai Museum will offer you a window from which you can have a good experience of Chinese culture. It has colorful collections, among which splendid china and ancient bronze vessels are the most famous. I'm sure it will be feast for your eyes and soul.

All in all, I can't wait to see you just in front of the museum so that I can be your guide.

Your sincerely,

Li Hua

Outside the door stood an old man with a white beard and a red cap, holding a well-packed box. Wearing a radiant smile, the man reached out his hands, passed the box to me and grinned “Christmas gift for you”. Shocked at the unexpected guest and gift, I was at a loss what to say. The moment he blended into the darkness, I untied the ribbon with heart thumping wildly. Inside the box lay a teddy bear I had longed for with an attached card. Once again, I couldn’t contain my tears.

Paragraph 2:

Through tear-blurred eyes, I recognized the handwriting on the card. It was a friend of mine and I later discovered that the man was her father. She was one of the audience of my sad story. The card read: Sorry, I’m late. Merry Christmas. I wiped away tears, held the box tightly and felt a surge of warmth. Christmas memories of this year wouldn’t be a bitter joke. Instead, it was a miracle which witnessed a healed heart. So now I believe Santa is real. This Santa doesn’t come down our chimneys, but lives inside good and thoughtful people who really listen to friends, and then plan deliberate acts of kindness.

Build a Good Partnership

Hello everyone!

As we all know, cooperation is of great importance in our daily life. It's a good way for us to improve our understanding and learn from each other. We know that two heads are better than one. Teamwork has great power. It can certainly save us time, energy or even trouble.

To be a great partner, you should try to be a good listener. Be open-minded to different opinions and show your respect. A good partnership is based on trust. Try to find your partner's advantages and learn to accept some of his or her weaknesses. Of course, when your partner makes mistakes, point them out in a polite way.

Cooperation can change the world in many ways. It is not only about oneself, but about how people communicate with one another.
